

UNITI expo

International Forum

Martine Thijs
Global Strategic Accounts, ICASA Group

Lise-Lotte Nordholm
VP, Dispenser Engineering & NPD, DFS

Mehmet Tözge
Director Smart Store Development, Lekkerland

Oscar Smith Diamante
Editor-in-Chief, PetrolPlaza

Trends From Around the World

Stations become connected service hubs

| Australia: Eats2U partners with Menulog to expand delivery service

More than 200 stores around the country will offer their products through the platform and will join more than 2,200 grocery and convenience locations.

| UK: Asda opens largest Asda On the Move store

5,000 square foot store includes fuels, click & collect, Asda toyou parcel collection and EV charging.

| Aral unveils its first 'mobility hub' in Berlin

The station embodies what the German fuelling giant considers the urban station of the future.

| Italy: IP launches parcel collection at its fuel stations

Leading Italian fuel retailer partners with Poste italiane to offer parcel collection services at 40 IP-branded fuel stations.

Major OMCs diversify their energy mix

| bp acquires 30% stake in the UK's largest provider of HVO

Green Biofuels' renewable hydrogenated vegetable oil (HVO) fuels can be used as a direct replacement for diesel.

| Shell to build one of Europe's biggest biofuels facilities

The plant will produce sustainable aviation fuel (SAF) and renewable diesel made from waste.

| Shell UK to establish 100,000 public EV charge points by 2030

The oil company is looking to expand its EV charging network so that 90% of drivers can be within 10 minutes of a charger.

| TotalEnergies opens new hydrogen station in Netherlands

The complete multi-fuel station has been built in cooperation with Berkman and Tigchelaar of MobilityHUB Breda.

| Neste joins the eFuel Alliance

The Berlin and Brussels organization works to set synthetic eFuels and sustainable biofuels at the centre of the future of transport.

Frictionless shopping & autonomous stores

| REWE opens Germany's first frictionless grocery store

Powered by Trigo, the new site uses AI-powered computer vision and off-the-shelf hardware to provide a new experience.

| Circle K introduces fully frictionless checkout experience in Arizona

Company exploring fully autonomous checkout solutions in existing Arizona Circle K stores that deliver speedy, seamless store experience.

| Poland: Żabka Group opens 25 autonomous nano stores

In just six months, the brand has opened different store formats that implement this concept developed alongside AiFi.

| UAE: ADNOC officially opens first autonomous convenience store

The company has teamed up with Magnati to develop the Oasis store which opened up in November for its pilot test.

| AiFi to conquer autonomous shopping with latest investment

With the highest number of computer vision-powered autonomous retail stores deployed across the globe, these funds will be used to scale with partners such as ALDI South Group, REWE and Żabka Group.

The smart store portfolio of Lekkerland

Possible use cases for gas stations with automats

Possible use cases for gas stations with Just Walk-Out Stores

PetrolPlaza Talks
Thank you for coming!

